ECC News

Trinity has part time child caregiver positions open in the early childhood programs. The caregiver helps to provide an interesting, fun, and loving child care program. The position includes helping to maintain a clean and attractive classroom, helping children with snacks and meals, and toileting/diapering. Candidates must meet State of Michigan Licensing requirements and pass a background check. Morning or afternoon shifts are available with some flexibility in work schedules. Please contact the school office for an application or more information.

PARENT/TEACHER CONFERENCE -Trinity students will be dismissed at 11:00 am on Thur., Nov. 10 and NO SCHOOL on Fri., Nov. 11. Please notify the office or Gloria Fahlsing if you will need child care or not.

Operation Christmas Child

Shoeboxes and instructions forms were sent home last week. Decide whether you will pack a box for a girl or a boy in the age category 2-4, 5-9, or 10-14 then fill the with gifts. Select a quality “wow” toy such as a doll or stuffed animal. Then, add other fun toy, hygiene items, or school supplies. Follow the label instruction for EZ Give donations. Shoeboxes must be returned by Wednesday, Nov. 16.

Help needed to sort Christmas boxes on Nov. 16 after chapel. Contact Lydia Schalhamer @ 517-740-4687.

Thanksgiving Baskets

Trinity school will be helping families in need by donating Thanksgiving baskets. Each classroom is responsible for certain items. Please have all items to school by Nov. 17.

Mrs. Dent: gravy and boxed mashed potatoes

Mrs. Frusti: green beans and canned fruit

Mr. Erfourth: cream of mushroom soup and dried onions

Mr. Genthner: canned yams and canned cranberries

Mrs. Valente: boxed stuffing and canned vegetables

Church Extension Fund-Stamps
